Sculptor Grerory Orekhov

Two full-length mirrors made of polished stainless steel

The park pavilions inspired by suprematism compositions

Pavilions are equipped with cafes and art spaces

The concept of the Basis bureau is based on recreating the close link between nature and art

It provides for using basic shapes, close to the main geometrical figures

Park restaurant in one of the pavilions

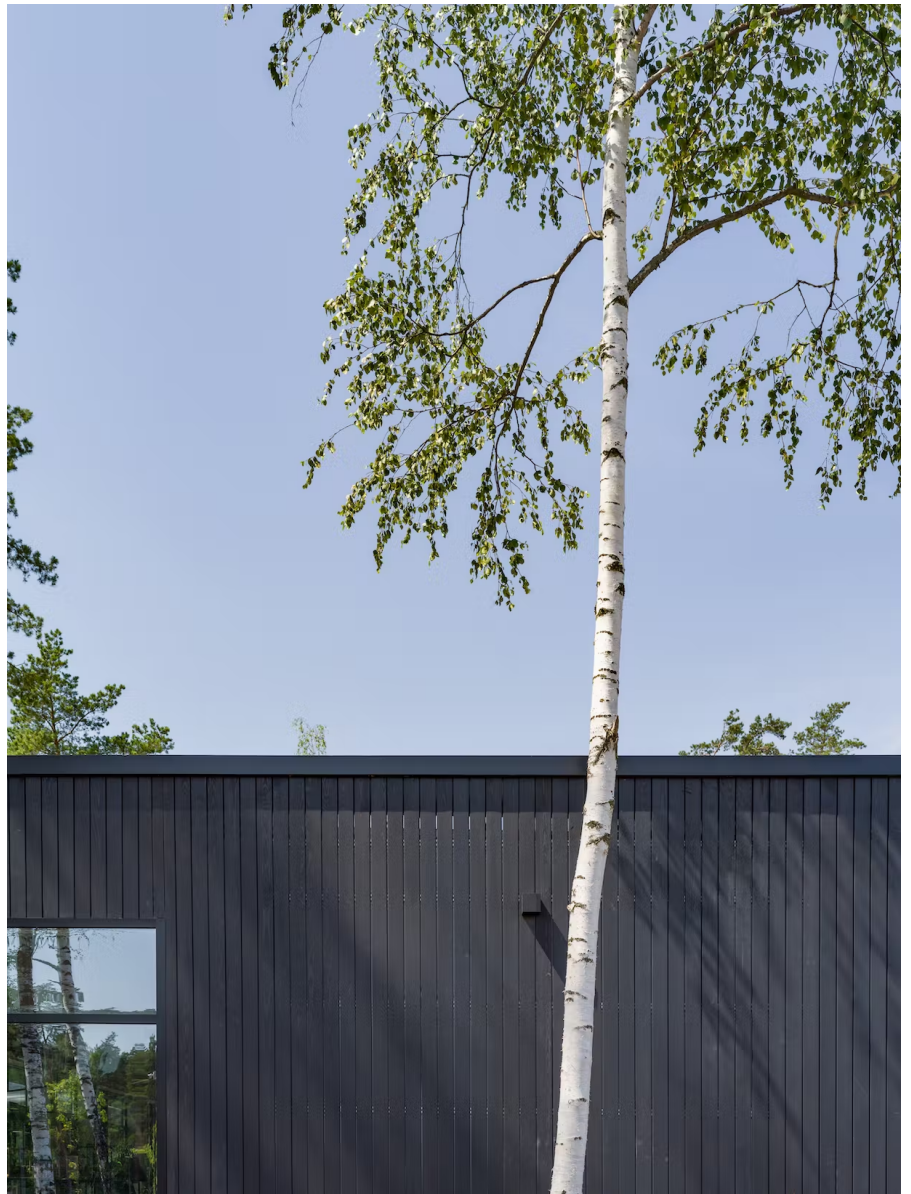

Park-restaurant is lit by sunlight

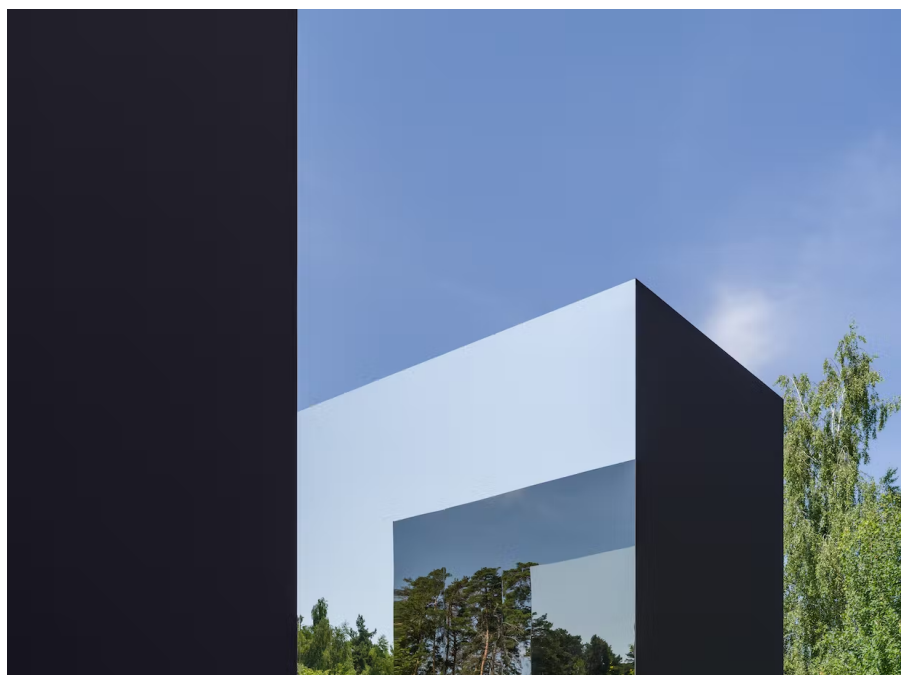

A popular spot among park visitors

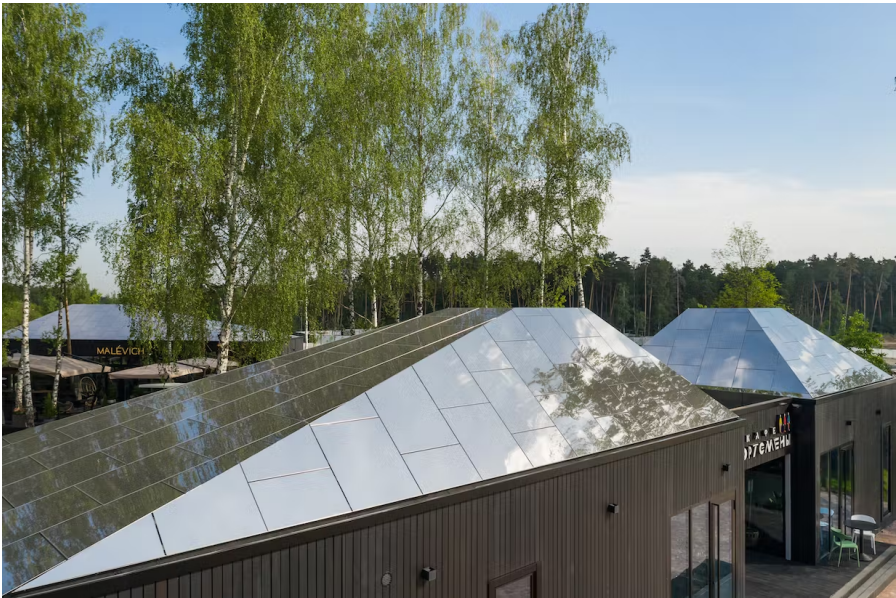

Family restaurant in one of the park pavilion

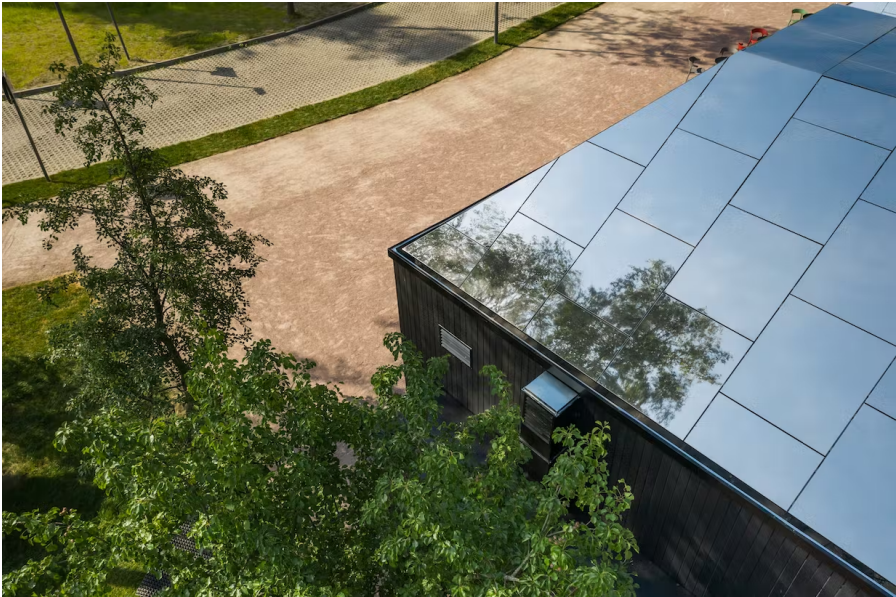

The composed austerity of the architecture highlights the natural beauty of the area.

A reflecting surface of the objects is stainless steel accompanied by black colour
